BURG HIGH SCHOOL

VALKYRIAN

“INTRODUCTION

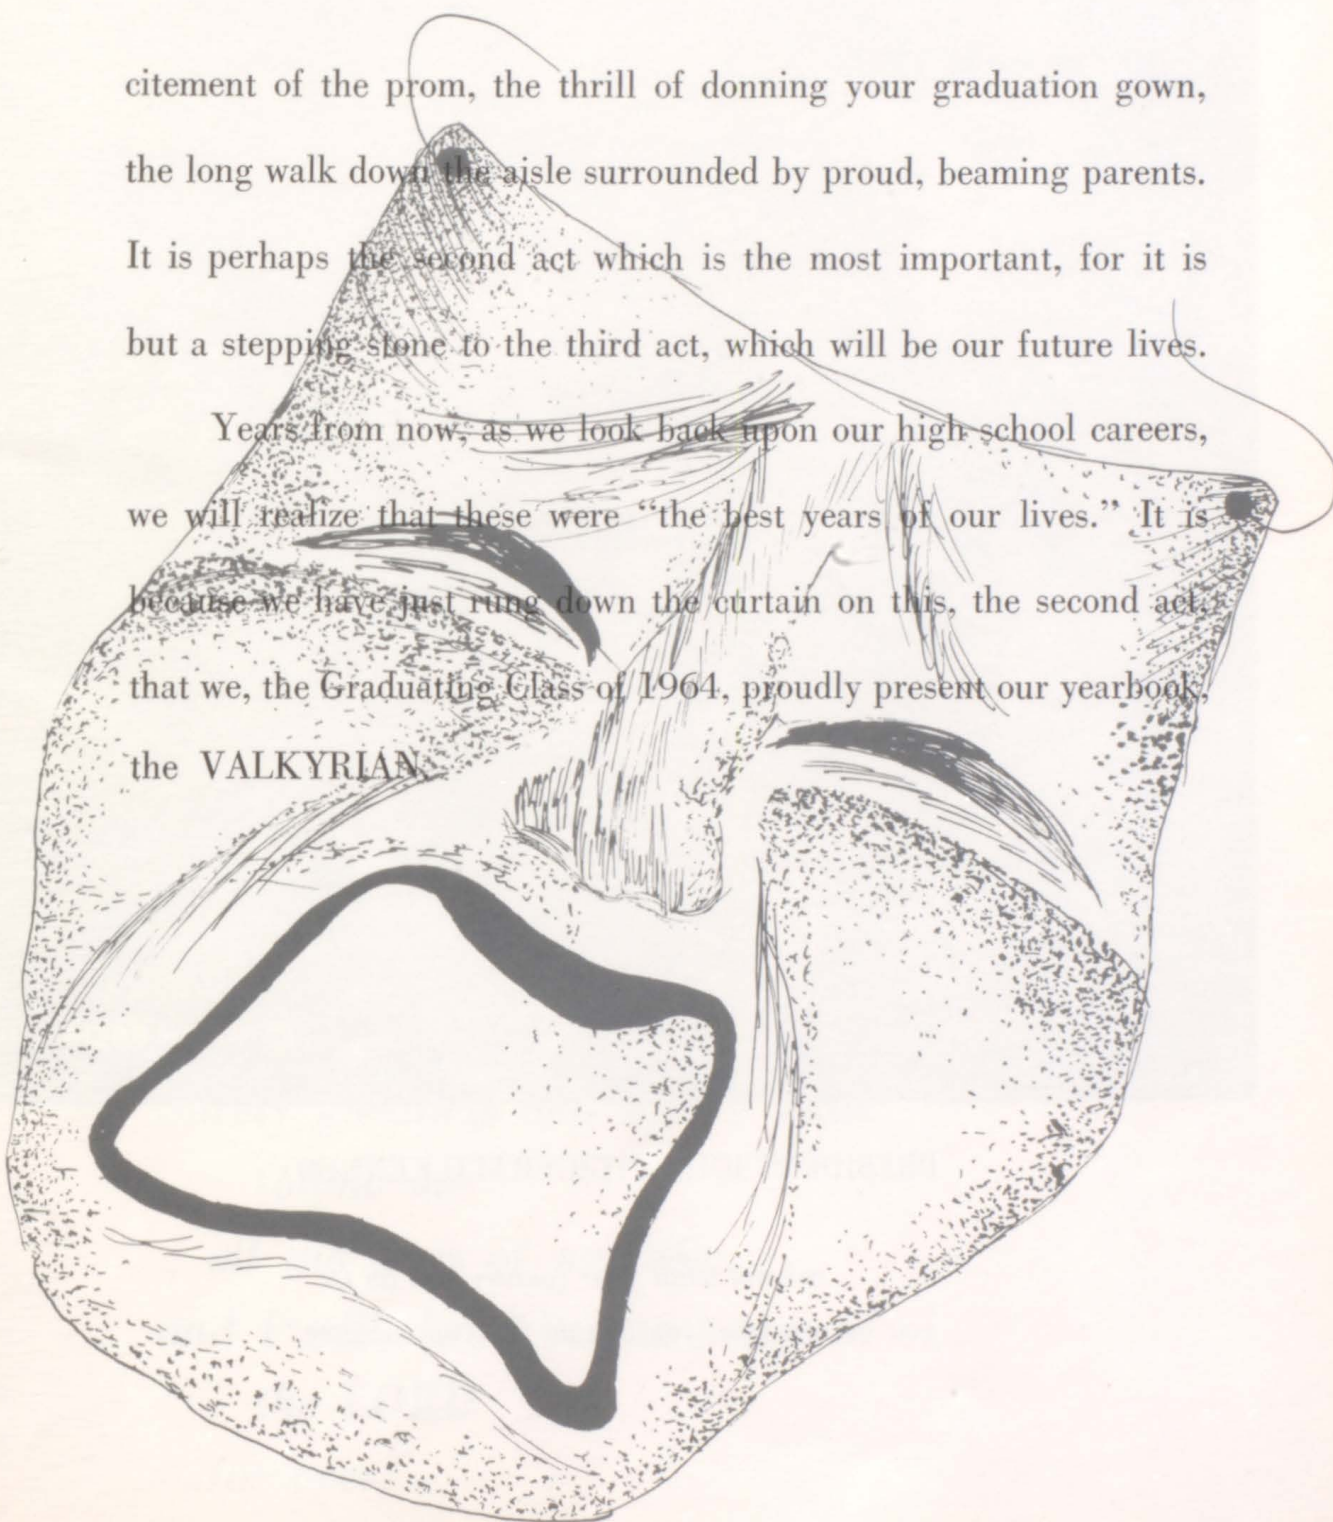

Even after being a member of a class for four years, one finds it difficult to write anything which encompasses the entire class, its hopes, desires, fears, and dreams. High school is but a single part in the drama of life.

Life is composed of three acts. The first act is the past—our formative years, in which we were directed along the channels through which we shall steer our course in life. The second act is the present—the tapestry of our high school career into which is woven varicolored threads which cover a multitude of activities—the football games, the dejection of defeat, the torturous homework assignments, the excitement of the prom, the thrill of donning your graduation gown, the long walk down the aisle surrounded by proud, beaming parents. It is perhaps the second act which is the most important, for it is but a stepping stone to the third act, which will be our future lives.

Years from now, as we look back upon our high school careers, we will realize that these were "the best years of our lives." It is because we have just rung down the curtain on this, the second act, that we, the Graduating Class of 1964, proudly present our yearbook, the VALKYRIAN.

PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

"... ask not what your country can do for you — ask what you can do for your country."

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want;
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

During our years in Vailsburg, there have been many teachers who have worked unselfishly in helping and guiding us along the road to maturity. One such teacher is Mr. Henry Yam.

Aside from being an excellent history teacher, he also serves in numerous other capacities. As guidance counselor, he was always ready to give his moral and physical support to any of those pupils who were faced with distressing problems. Through his efforts and under his sage leadership, the Student Council has become the body where our representatives can voice opinions concerning the whole school. Mr. Yam, as head of the Audio-Visual Department, has engineered the mechanics of many an assembly. Also, anyone who has ever had the opportunity of being late knows whose face is the first to be seen.

Whenever we think of Mr. Yam, we will be reminded of his soft-spoken mannerism, the helping hand he always had ready to lend, and his elegant mustache.

To express the sincere thanks of the graduating class, we proudly dedicate the VALKYRIAN '64 to Mr. Henry Yam.

DEDICATION

DIRECTORY

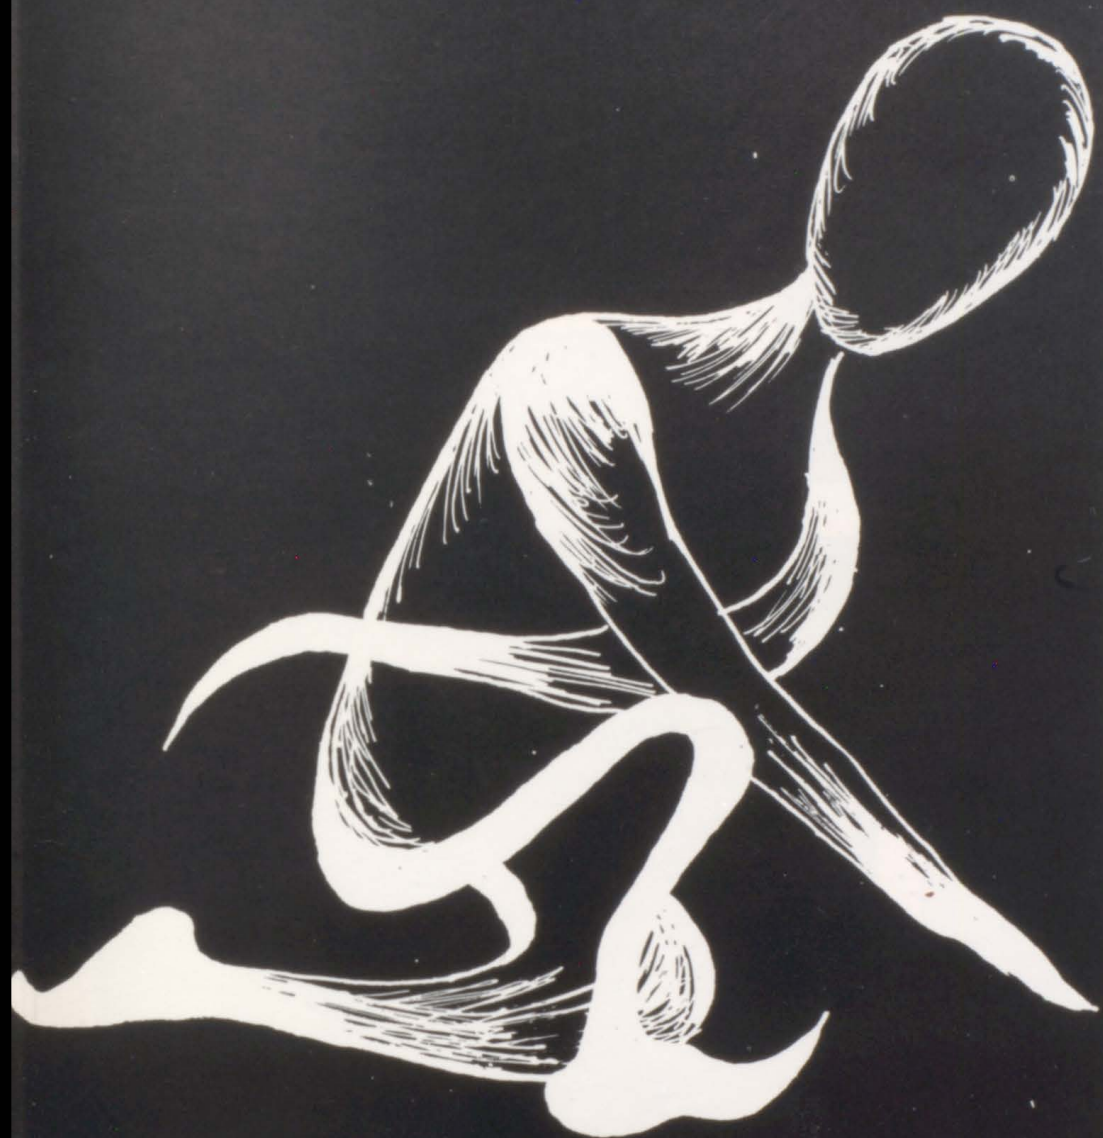

As we seniors look back to our first high school years, we marvel at how much we have grown both mentally and physically.

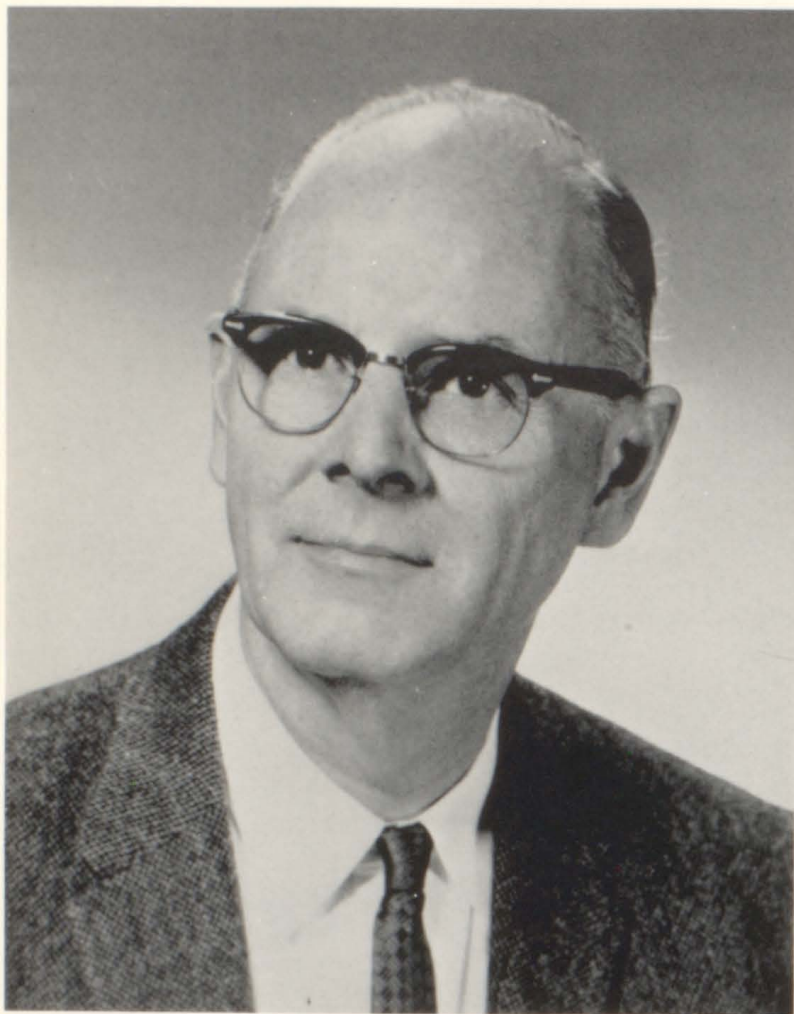

Our teachers and administrators have played a large part in molding us into what we are now and what we shall be in the future. Through their adept efforts, we have gained much knowledge and insight of ourselves, others, and our complicated world.

Although we leave Vailsburg High School, the faculty and administration will carry on and continue to teach and influence thousands more like us.

We seniors would like to thank all those who helped us travel along that rocky road to maturity. We hope we have made their profession as enjoyable and worthwhile as they have made our education.

FACULTY

DR. JOHN T. McSHARRY
principal

Dr. McSharry's guidance, inspiration, and firm discipline will lead us to accept new responsibilities and positions of leadership in the future.

As an educator and leader, Dr. McSharry will always stand high in our esteem. As a friend, he will always be in our affection.

We, the Graduating Class of 1964, express to Dr. McSharry our sincere thanks and appreciation for his tireless work on our behalf and for his unending faith in each one of us.

WILLIAM A. MONPRODE JR.
vice principal

Nothing was ever too insignificant for Mr. Monprode's careful attention to our scheduling problems, which were solved with patience, understanding, and dispatch.

The Class of 1964 was fortunate to be the recipient of Mr. Monprode's kindness, warm interest, and continual encouragement. We sincerely thank him for making our stay at Vailsburg High School an enjoyable one.

GUIDANCE

MISS ELIZABETH A.
McHUGH

The Senior Class of 1964 wishes to express its deep gratitude to Miss Elizabeth McHugh for having performed that herculean task of establishing a broad functional guidance program. Miss McHugh will always be remembered for her personal interest and help in enabling each student to better understand and solve his problems. The high ideals set up by this dedicated woman will always be keenly appreciated by every member of the class.

MRS. ELEANOR R. ZARIN

As we reach our Senior Year in high school, we search for the expert advice of someone who can assist us to make the best choices for our future life. We, the Senior Class of Vailsburg High, are extremely grateful that we have found such a person—Mrs. Zarin, our guidance counselor, who has done so much to help us. We sincerely express our appreciation and gratitude.

MR. FRANK J. HILL

The Graduating Class of Vailsburg High School is greatly indebted to this dedicated advisor. His authoritative advice and congeniality will be remembered by all those who know him. Always helpful with our current and future problems, he is able to comprehend our needs. The seniors are truly thankful for having such a conscientious counselor.

The year 1963 will be remembered by Vailsburg students because it marked the passing of two of our most beloved teachers.

Mr. Villani's and Mrs. Flynn's selfless devotion and tireless efforts to help their pupils will not soon be forgotten by anyone who had the privilege of being in any of their classes.

IN MEMORIAM

CARMEN VILLANI

"When God picks His flowers, He picks the finest."

It seems that the four years we spend in high school pass all too quickly. Of these, the senior year is by far the most rewarding.

Parties, proms, plans for the future, and finally graduation culminate, perhaps, one of the best years of our lives. Yes, we worked hard—being Seniors added much to our responsibilities. Most of us learned that life isn't all "fun and games," but we shouldered our new obligations.

When we leave Vailsburg, we'll leave behind many friends and many memories, some happy and some sad. Yet, the future spreads her winding road before us and beckons: "Come! Come! See what life really has to offer!"

We hope we are prepared.

SEN N I O R S

SENIOR ADVISORS

We, the Senior Class, are deeply indebted to our faculty advisors—Mrs. Evelyn Bacheller and Mr. Leon Lippman.

The goals which we, as seniors, had set for ourselves were not easily attained and, at times, seemed impossible. Our advisors, however, were with us every step of the way. Patiently, and with great forbearance, they have helped us time and time again to overcome obstacles which we thought insurmountable.

Though words are poorly insufficient, we, the graduating class of 1964, would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to our devoted advisors. We will always remember them.

We, as seniors, have this to say to our esteemed colleagues, the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors of Vailsburg High School:

Always have faith. Whenever you feel that the world is closing in on you and life seems impossible, keep your chin up, your back straight, put a smile on your face, and, above all, believe in yourself. Faith is what keeps the world alive. It is that indefinable element that has helped this great country through two wars, that indefinable element that goes up with every missile and every astronaut that ever left this good earth, that indefinable element which, if called upon, will give you a successful high school career.

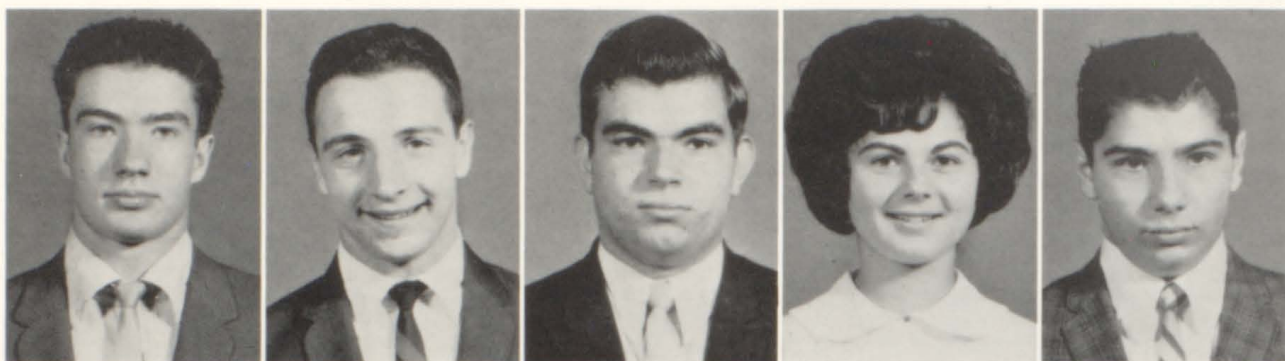

As underclassmen, you have no doubt experienced many of the frustrations of learning. There have been, and will continue to be, many times when your feelings may best be expressed by one sentence—I just don't care any more! Learning has never been an easy process for anyone, but it is an important one. Remember—your future rests on the knowledge which you gain in high school.

Friendly competition teaches good sportsmanship, loyalty to one's school, and respect for a worthy opponent. These characteristics are evident in all the Vikings' athletic endeavors.

In a sense, every contest was indicative of the spirit of self-sacrifice which abounds in athletes. The teams, the coaches, and the spectators should be highly commended for all they have done to further Vailsburg's reputation.

FOOTBALL

Nineteen sixty-three will always stand out as a momentous year for our varsity football squad. The climax of the season came on a partly cloudy Saturday when our Vikings played away at distant Union Hill. The game was rated as a toss-up, but the home team had the advantage of a familiar field and the partisan fans, while we had been demoralized by a heart-breaking loss to Central High on the previous weekend. However, we were not to be denied the first victory in our school's short history. Unknown to the team, several bus loads of Vailsburg rooters had also made the long trek to Union Hill. Upon the sight of the friendly faces in the stands, the team was revitalized. Led by the cries of ebullient fans and cheerleaders, the Viking blitz-krieg offense struck for the two quick touchdowns, while the defense held off the tenacious opponent. Vailsburg had its initial win, one that was a real school effort.

The exhilaration of Vailsburg fans and the sportsmanship of the individual players on the field have become a tradition of our athletic teams in these three years at Vailsburg—a tradition we hope that will always exist.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Under the outstanding leadership of Coach Hill, the Viking harriers astonished many veteran cross-country observers by reaching the .500 mark in their third year of varsity competition.

Cross-Country has developed much student participation and popularity. It prepares one physically for other sports and, at the same time, it is a popular sport in itself.

SOCCER

Stu Applebaum

The soccer team began its second year with a difficult schedule against such teams as Irvington Tech., East Side, and Barringer. Although the team did not experience many victories, they did succeed in developing great team spirit under the leadership of Coach Mike Mirabella.

This year's team loses five seniors. Fred Salvatoriello and Ed Branigan, defensive fullbacks, played consistently fine soccer, showing improvements in each game. Joe Nazzaro's tricky ball-control commanded respect from other players. Although Stu Applebaum and Les Lakind joined the team late, their speed and hustle impressed Coach Mirabella.

The team will surely miss these boys, but there are happy prospects for next year.

The sport is growing in popularity, and Vailsburg looks forward to future seasons with great hope.

Fred Salvatoriello

Jump, Glen, Jump!

The Vailsburg Cagers closed out the 1963-64 season with a record of 6 victories and 13 defeats. Although last year's team had a better "won and lost" record, this year's squad, despite being handicapped by numerous injuries, made an extremely creditable showing and came very close to pulling off the upset of the year when it played the mighty Central Blue Devils on even terms for most of the game.

Among the luminaries in basketball for the big "V" this season were: Ray DeRiggi, Jim Bartilotta, Mike Insabella, Carl Roberts, Joe Purzyki, and, of course, the phenomenal Glen Schmieder. Glen, using primarily his blistering jump shot, ran up an average of about 16 points a game and scored 30 points in two games (against Bloomfield Tech and Newark Tech) to become the all-time high scorer in Vailsburg Cage history.

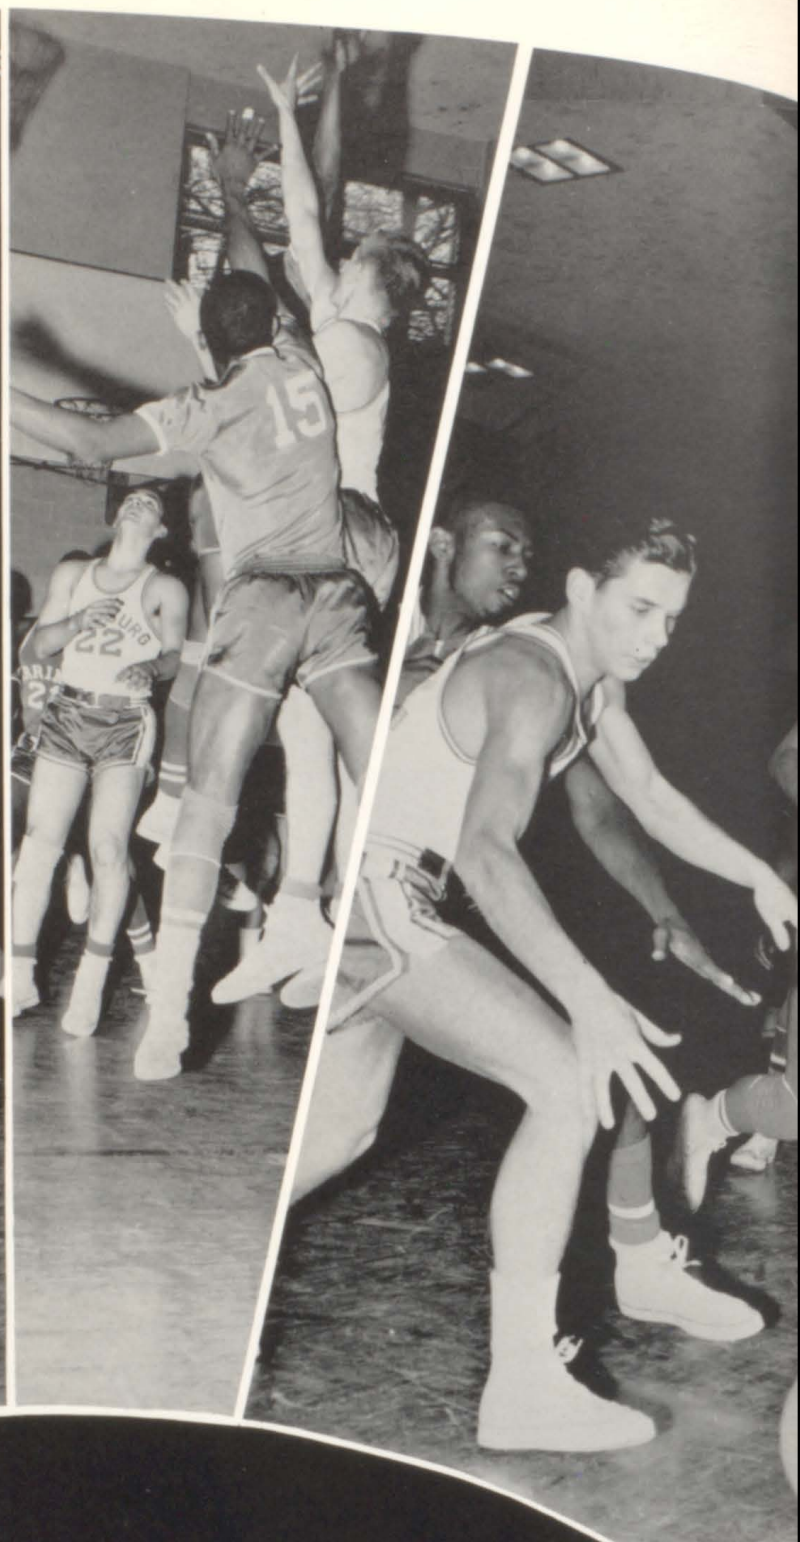

Next year, with almost all of this year's squad back (except for Schmieder), the Vikings should really begin to make their presence felt in the very difficult City League.

Unlike most other sports events, swimming does not have the bleachers crowded with enthusiastic students cheering. Nor does it have attractive cheerleaders boosting morale. Actually, the sport of swimming doesn't have the glamor of football, basketball, or baseball; but what it does have is a team of boys whose main objective is to make Vailsburg's name known and looked up to as a school with competitive students.

Naturally, the backbone of any team is its coach. Sol Stone, most commonly called Coach Stone, is truly the core of the team. Ask any member of the swimming team what he thinks of the coach, and the reply most assuredly will be "the greatest."

This year Coach Stone anticipates that we will try our hardest to place second in the city. When asked what type of boy it would take to be on Vailsburg's swimming team, Coach Stone said, "It takes a unique type of boy with courage to be able to stick to the daily grind of training. It also takes a boy who loves swimming to derive such satisfaction from the training." "Above all," he continued, "it takes a boy loyal enough to dedicate his talent for the good of the school."

Last year Vailsburg placed third in the city in swimming. The events are based on a five place basis. All contenders in the City Meet who come in the first five places receive a point. The results of that meet are as follows:

Event	Placement	Swimmer
Medley	2nd place	Bill Weber Stu Applebaum Ed Gann Lou Garubo

TITLE

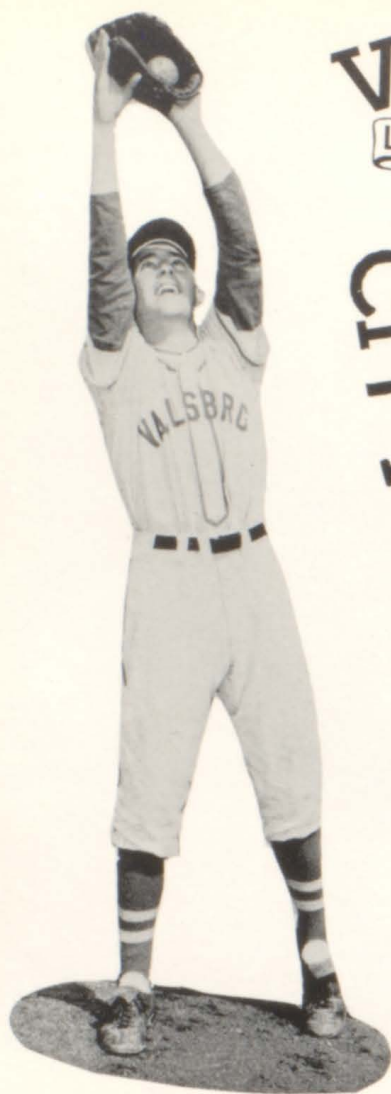

BASEBALL

The 1963 sports season of Vailsburg High School was highlighted by a fantastic show of ability on the part of our baseball team.

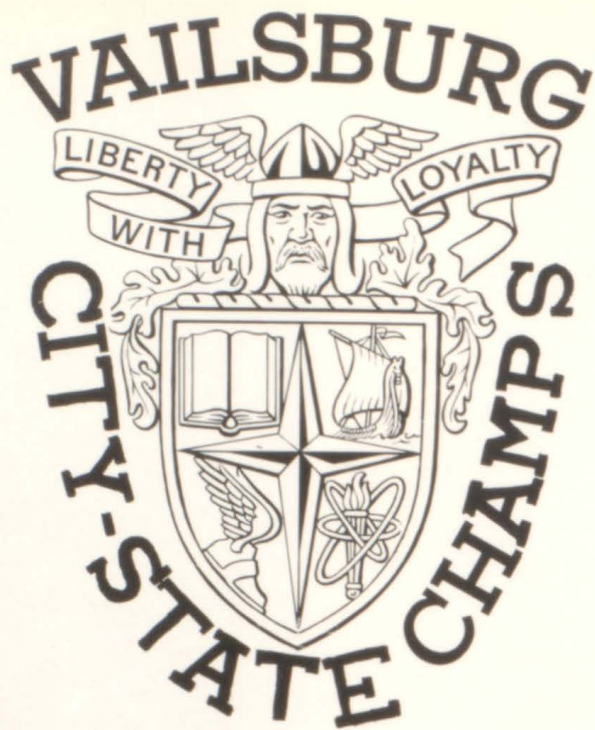

The Vailsburg nine, with the superb coaching of Mr. Robert Reilly, captured City and State laurels in its first year of varsity competition.

Their first objective was to overcome the hold that East Side had on the City League. With only four losses, our team captured the City Championship. From there the Vikings went on to challenge Hanover Park for the State Championship at City Stadium. Winning this tight game earned top honors for us and blazers for the team.

The championship team lost four members: pitcher, Vinnie Fazzari; first baseman, Bobby Baker; and outfielders, Lou Pascale and Joe Ingaro. The present senior class contributed nine members to the squad: Fred Salvatoriello, Leo Mongiovi, Bob Buckowski, Glen Schmieder, Marcial Garlitos, Art Brady, Bob Farese, Tony Carlucci, and Joe Penbera. Seniors, Tony Carlucci and Joe Penbera, brought honor to the Vikings by being selected for the All-City Team. Additional prestige was ours in the selection of Ray De Riggi to the All-State Team.

Vailsburg's wing-footed sons of Mercury go into the 1964 track season with a great deal of confidence and assurance. Although the previous two years have brought little in the way of accolades, this year the flying Vikings will undoubtedly be vastly improved and give their adversaries many anxious moments.

Among the Vailsburg track men to watch are seniors: Walt Halen, Mark Hart, Vincent Pasquale, and Les Lakind. As most of the aforementioned have two years of varsity competition under their belt, this should be their year to shine. Our prospects for a really fine year are excellent.

The activities program has been greatly increased since the formation of the theory that places emphasis on a well-rounded education. The high school's primary function is to prepare adolescents for their challenging life ahead. This idea is culminated in Vailsburg High's varied activities program.

Through a wide range of activities, the pupil learns to participate in the group affairs of his organization, thereby developing leadership and character. Many clubs are formed to provide helpful information about specific topics. The student's opportunities at Vailsburg are for the most part unlimited.

One of the most important activities of the Senior Class is the publication of the VALKYRIAN. This book will be reflected on by the individual as a living memorial of his years at Vailsburg.

Every senior is an integral part of the book, though all did not have a physical hand in its publication. The many successes and failures of the Class are represented in this year-book.

To all those who worked on the staff of the VALKYRIAN, this book is the visible result of a great deal of hard work. But to all seniors, this book is you!!

The members of the National Honor Society have done an excellent job this year in promoting a high ambition for learning in Vailsburg High. They have set an unmistakable example for the rest of the students by their character, leadership, and service. Many of the members participated in a tutoring program, which was open to all students who desired help in a particular subject.

The primary purpose of any school is, of course, the preparation of young people to face the complexities of life and college. We, here at Vailsburg, are fortunate enough to possess some of the finest educational facilities and teachers in the city of Newark.

This section is devoted to giving the reader a few glimpses of classroom life at Vailsburg. We hope we have succeeded in presenting a true picture.

EVERYONE FOR VAILSBURG . . .

A SENIOR'S FAREWELL

We made it! It hasn't always been as easy as we wanted, but it was worth it.

For most of us this has been our sixth year in the building; we have been privileged to witness its startling metamorphosis from grammar school to high school. The phenomenal mushrooming of labs, and typing rooms has served to stir us from C to shining C. Even more important is the remarkable evolution of Vailsburg as an academic and athletic Parnassus.

We realize that high school is only a beginning, but with this beginning we are sure that what will follow will prove worthy of all the time and effort spent on us by both the administration and faculty of this fine school.

Ed Cohen

Ed Cohen and Sue Herman glance over a competitor's yearbook.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Six years! Then a child, now young men and women. Such has been the unique privilege of faculty and administration—to witness the metamorphosis of youth. To the young men and ladies who now cross our threshold officially for the last time, we wish you well. May your tears be few but salutary, your laughter true, your dreams a prelude to reality. May this Commencement be a dress rehearsal for the Great Commencement when the true value of the Viking motto, “Liberty with Loyalty” will come to eternal fruition.

THANK

TO:

Mrs. Bacheller and Mr. Lippman for their time, effort, and food.

Betty McHenry for all her many clerical chores on behalf of the senior class.

Mrs. Ann Murray and her hard working staff of salesmen who strove so hard to make this book a financial success.

Mrs. Eleanor Zarin for her expert artistic advice.

Mr. Eugene Foley for his effort to make the book something of which to be proud.

Mr. Norris Ashe (Taylor Publishing Co.) for letting us bother him with myriad questions.

Mr. Milton Goldsmith (Academy Photographers) for his patience and understanding.
